

Please do not allow cell phones for use inflight on all domestic carriers here in the United States. Not only would this be incredibly annoying to passengers, it would also be extremely unsafe and would pose a threat to our flights for possible terrorist hijackings and a direct threat to our Homeland Security.